RAIL STRIKE PUTS MANY OUT OF JOBS

A. F. L. Switchmen on Four Major Roads Reject Fact-Finding Board Proposals

SEEK HIGHER WAGES

Chicago, June 26—(P)—The strike of 4,000 AFL switchmen had brought four major western railroads to a standstill today and had thrown thousands of other workers out of jobs.

Lines tied up by the walkout yesterday morning of the Switchmen's Union of North America are the 8,000-mile Chicago, Rock-Island and Pacific; the 2,413-mile Denver and Rio Grande western; the 1,500-mile Chicago and Great Western; and the 1,125-mile Western Pacific.

The fifth struck line, the 8,000-mile Great Northern, said it has maintained near normal passenger service but that its freight movements have been crippled.

The men left their jobs in support of a demand for a 40-hour week at the present 48-hour pay, equal to a wage boost of 31 cents an hour. In taking the strike action, they rejected a recommendation by a presidential fact-finding board that they be granted a 40-hour week and a pay increase of 18 cents an hour.

The union now has a contract with the Delaware, Lackawanna and Western Railroad at the terms requested of the other lines. That agreement raised the pay of switchmen on yard conductors from $13.06 a day to $15.67; helpers or yard brakemen from $12.21 to $14.65, and switch tenders from $10.71 to $12.86.

The strike deadline at 6 a. m. local time yesterday found the four railroads ready to halt operations. They had announced earlier that if final negotiations failed of a settlement, they would not even try to run any trains during the strike.

They announced the layoff of at least 35,000 other employees, most of them effective today.

Representatives for the trainmen and conductors will meet July 10 in Chicago to decide what to do about the recommendations. They will be free to strike on July 15.

21 Are Dead and 33 Missing In Flash Floods That Visit West Virginia Over Weekend

West Union, W. Va., June 26—(P)—At least 21 persons were dead and 33 missing today in the wake of flash floods that struck a six-county area of north-central West Virginia early Sunday morning. The surging torrents rolled out of the darkness without warning. Authorities fear the toll may go much higher. At least 12 of the 15 members of a family gathered for a birthday party at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Bailey at Smithburg, five miles west of here, are missing.

Only one member of the Bailey family is known to be alive. The body of Mrs. Bailey, about 60, has been recovered, and another body, believed to be that of a five-months-old grandson, also has been found.

The Bailey home was directly in the path of the flood. Sheriff Paul B. Davis said the house was carried nearly two miles downstream.

The only known survivor of the family is Charles Bailey, a son, who is in a West Union Hospital with a fractured leg, cuts and bruises.

Six members of the B. J. Cooper family at Smithburg also were listed as dead in the swirling waters, and three members of another family there were killed when their home was pounded into bits against a railway trestle.

Berea, a little agricultural community located on a Horse Shoe curve of the south fork of the Hughes river south of here, also was hard hit. Six persons were known dead there, including a grandmother and two of her grandchildren.

Postmaster Ray Bonnell said the toll at Berea might have been higher except for the Paul Revere actions of two of the town's young men, Harland Hodge and Charles Bridge, who dashed through the community knocking on doors to warn residents.

Property damage is expected to run high. In West Union, 200 homes were destroyed. City officials at Weston, 25 miles to the southeast on the West Fork river, estimated the damage there at $2,000,000.

Harrisburg, June 26—(P)—Gov. James H. Duff questions the legality of a proposed congressional investigation of Republican campaign expenses in Pennsylvania.

"The federal corrupt practices act makes no regulation of any kind for expenditures in a primary," Duff said in a weekend statement.

At the same time, Duff accused the Democrats of resorting to "sneak" tactics. Duff reiterated his willingness (Turn to Page Eight)

Activities of Police Highlighted By The First Gambling Raid For Some Time

City police activities over the week end were highlighted by the first gambling raid held in some time.

A squad of officers, led by Lt. Mike Evan, raided the Lamplite Dinor at midnight Friday where they found two miniature slot machines, and several punch boards of both the money and merchandise variety. The devices were confiscated.

F. R. Benson, proprietor of the Dinor, posted $50 bond for his appearance on Saturday, after being arraigned before Justice of the Peace Tracy M. Greenlund, entered a plea of guilty and paid a fine and costs.

Accompanying Lt. Evan on the raid were Officers Hewitt, Winegardner and Tucker.

At 3:45 p. m. Friday, police were called to Madison and Central avenue, where Robert Webster, 6, 103 Central avenue, was struck by a car operated by Eugene Lauffenberger, Warren R. D. 1. According to the police report, young Webster rode his bicycle out of a driveway at 707 Madison avenue, directly in front of the Lauffenberger car. Lauffenberger told police that a hedge at that point obscured his view and that the lad was into the street before he was seen.

The boy was taken to the Warren General Hospital where he was treated for a scalp laceration. He was discharged and re-admitted yesterday for further treatment.

A report of a hit-run driver about 10:30 Friday evening, was investigated, and police found that two cars had been damaged on Pennsylvania avenue east. Police ascertained the identity of the driver of the offending vehicle and he will be arrested some time today, it is expected.

Another accident, of a minor nature, occurred about 7:50 p. m. Saturday at Fourth and Liberty. No report was made and the drivers settled their difficulties.

One drunk was picked up Friday afternoon in the vicinity of Beech street; and a couple causing a disturbance at the Revere Hotel Friday evening were arrested and charged with disorderly conduct.

At 12:48 a. m. Saturday, police arrested a woman believed to be a pugilist in the (Turn to Page Eight)

Big Blocks of Stock Dumped On Market

New York, June 26—(P)—Big blocks of stocks were dumped on the market today in the first response to hostilities in Korea.

Leading issues plunged $1 to around $5 a share.

Opening transactions were long delayed for many important shares—notably steel and automobile stocks—while buyers and sellers bagged over prices.

Initial transactions ranged up to 35,000 shares in the case of Radio Corp. which dropped $1.87 to $20 a share.

The heavy opening sales were the result of selling orders which piled up over the weekend. After this glut of business was disposed of, the market showed a tendency to level off.

Further selling was orderly and further losses minor.

Scout Executive Writes An Interesting Letter From the National Jamboree Site

Written for the Times-Mirror by Frank Parker, executive, Warren County Council, Boy Scouts of America.

National Jamboree, Valley Forge, June 23—The grounds and headquarters services are about in readiness to receive the 47,000 Scouts who will converge on Valley Forge for the National Boy Scout Jamboree starting Tuesday and continuing to arrive 'till Thursday.

The service that will have the biggest job those few days will be the Transportation group. It is they who will take care of the baggage from the incoming trains and see that it gets to the right group.

I am part of the program group who have the program of the whole Jamboree in their care. My particular job is deputy director of service corps. We will furnish courier service, guides, guards for exhibits, ushers for the arena shows, and guards for various pieces of equipment used in different exhibits and arena shows.

We will have two troops in the Service Corps recruited from the Boy Scout scholastic fraternity APO and the Order of the Arrow, the national camping fraternity. These young men will staff the information centers, and the headquarters reception center.

I have had an opportunity to view the campsite that will be occupied by the Warren County Jamboree Troop. The spot is nearly flat with one corner on a slight down grade. Their site will be about one mile from the Arena where the big shows will be staged in the shadows of the memorial arch. Region 3 of which Warren county is a member has a large entrance sign depicting George Washington in a kneeling position at prayer. The figure is about 12 feet high on a 16 foot base making it 28 feet in all. The names of the Region 3 Councils appear on the base. The Scouts of the Warren County Jamboree Troop are building their own troop gateway. The entrance will be a map of Pennsylvania with the Map of Warren county in detail.

All the news services and major radio networks have facilities here. Television shows will originate here with many interesting (Turn to Page Eight)

First Week's Attendance at Borough Playgrounds Sets New All-Time Record

Topping all previous records in the history of the Warren playgrounds, attendance figures for the first week of the 1950 summer season are reported by Director Inez Rudolph to have reached the total of 10,928.

Nearest to that figure was the 1948 first week total of 10,100, with 6,174 in 1949; 5,736 in 1947 and 4,995 in 1946.

Beaty and Crescent areas have remained open during the lunch and dinner hours and report large numbers for that time. Beaty, of course, led in total count, with 3,753; 1,207 at Crescent; 2,365 at Lacy; 1,580 at South street; 1,097 at West Side; 916 at Home street.

AMERICAN EMBASSY BURNING IMPORTANT SECRET PAPERS AS PLANES STRAFE STREETS

BULLETIN

Seoul, Korea, Tuesday, June 26—(P)—Invading north Korean Communists stabbed a tank column to the outskirts of this southern republic's capital early today and broadcast a demand for southern surrender. The surrender demand was made over the Pyongyang radio by Gen. Chai Ung Jun, commander of the northern forces that suddenly invaded south Korea Sunday morning. Prospects of total defeat of the southern forces through had morale rather than by being beaten in the field were in evidence at this zero hour today.

Washington, June 26—(P)—President Truman today pledged full United States support of United Nations efforts to end the "unprovoked aggression" against south Korea.

Mr. Truman's statement was handed to reporters by presidential secretary Charles G. Ross.

The big question being asked in this capital was whether the United States was ready to supply armed forces if the United Nations asked for them to back up its week-end "cease fire" order in Korea.

Reporters got a chance to put it to Secretary of Defense Johnson when he visited the capitol for discussion of the general military assistance program with the senate foreign relations committee.

Washington, June 26—(P)—Republican senators agreed unanimously today that the Communist attack on south Korea should not be allowed the L. volve this country in war.

Senator Millikin of Colorado, chairman of the conference of all Republican senators, said the GOP members agreed in a caucus that this country should provide military supplies and other aid for south Korea.

The Republicans criticized the military establishment and the state department for what they said was a failure of intelligence services to warn this country that the Russian trained and equipped forces of north Korea were ready to strike.

Seoul, June 26—(P)—A Communist northern spearhead swept within nine miles of Seoul tonight and fears were expressed it may reach the city before dawn.

Southern resistance at Uijongbu, only 12 miles away, collapsed before the Russian backed forces hammering at them with tanks and artillery.

The American embassy burned its important secret papers in a huge bonfire. Air raid sirens screamed. The city was buzzing after four northern planes strafed downtown streets.

The flying column rushed toward here from the Uijongbu valley. A southern counteroffensive there failed miserably during the day.

Heavy artillery softened up the Uijongbu defenders and the tanks pushed them out of town after savage street fighting.

Two southern divisions totalling 20,000 men dug in outside of the town of Uijongbu. But the determined onslaught of heavy tanks pushed them aside and the northern invaders, who were halted temporarily yesterday, rolled on toward the capital.

President Syngman Rhee and his cabinet were in emergency session at midnight. They were reportedly discussing the Ongjin Peninsula front, where southern forces were reeling or knocked out.

Advices here said 30,000 southern troops along the boundary between the U. N. sponsored republic and Russian back north were in dire straits.

Another segment of the southern army was in trouble at Kangnung, 15 miles due south of the 38th parallel on the east coast. Northern forces had been halted short of Uijongbu yesterday. Southern forces started a counter-offensive today. The Seventh and second divisions of 10,000 men each were thrown into the fight.

From the start things went wrong. Intense artillery fire rocked the second division back on its heels. Tanks ripped into them, halting what little forward movement the southerners had been able to make.

Sinn Sung Mo said four small planes had been rushed to the area to try to knock out the Communist artillery.

A company of guerrillas reportedly slipped behind the southern forces and destroyed bridges and severed communication lines adding to the confusion.

Sinn said the Russian supported northern artillery had made the South's second division at Uijongbu helpless.

The Communists rolled down Sunday morning from the north, spearheaded by tanks. Suicide squads of South Koreans were reported to have knocked out several tanks.

The invading force was estimated at 50,000 to 75,000 men. Six thousand men were estimated to have been killed or wounded on both sides.

Seoul's airport was raided once. An encounter was reported between a Russian YAK-3 and an American Mustang protecting U. S. Nationals ordered evacuated.

(General MacArthur's headquarters in Tokyo announced it would turn over 10 Mustang fighter planes to South Korean pilots in Japan.

(Other U. S. war material was to be escorted by sea and land patrols to the hard pressed South Koreans, whose republic is U. S. backed and U. N. sponsored.)

Search Under Way In Lake Michigan For Lost Airliner and 58 On Board

St. Joseph, Mich., June 26—(P)—A grim search got underway today in the depths of Lake Michigan where it is virtually certain that the lost Northwest Airlines plane went down.

An airline representative left little doubt that this resort community was the scene of doom for the capacity-loaded ship when he identified a torn piece of blue blanket early today. The blanket was marked with the letters NW.

Other traces of plane wreckage and pieces of human bodies were found on the lake waters last night. An oil slick has been sighted.

There was only the faintest hope that any of the 58 passengers aboard the airliner could have lived through the worst air disaster in this country's history.

Paul Benscoter, sent here by NWA to help direct the search for the big plane, looked over some gum tokens of the crash—bits of bodies, the blanket fragment, a man's fur-collared jacket, other pieces of clothing, part of a suitcase.

But he said a plane log and maintenance report apparently did not belong to the Northwest plane.

Five coast guard cutters lined up to go into the wreckage area during the day.

Capt. Nathaniel S. Fulford, representing the commander of the Ninth Coast Guard district, said the matter of sending divers down into the lake would be up to the airlines operations men.

Still Another Corps Coming on the Fourth

Announcement that still another drum and bugle corps has been entered in the Fourth of July parade and competition, was made by the committee today. The entry was received from the American Legion Post No. 1344, Dunkirk, N. Y., and will compete in the Class C contest. It has been assigned a place in Division 17 of the parade.

The Galeon American Legion drill team has also sent word that it plans to be in Warren. It has also been revealed that Bill Barr has been secured as caller for the street dance following the variety show a week from tonight. The committee will meet Tuesday evening at 7:30 at the American Legion home.

Three Are Injured In 1-Car Accident On Jackson Run Road

Three Erie persons, none seriously injured, are in Warren General Hospital today and five others, all passengers in the same car, were given emergency treatment yesterday following a one-car accident on Route 69 near Chancellors Valley shortly after noon.

Admitted at the hospital were Mrs. Edna Arndt, 41, who is suffering from injuries to the neck, skull and back; Mrs. Lilly Kreider, 55, who sustained a back injury; and Lana Kreider, 4, with a head injury.

Given emergency treatment were Robert Arndt, Ruth Kreider, and Bernard Arndt, who sustained lacerations of the left side of the head requiring three sutures. Bernard Arndt was the operator of the car.

State police, who investigated, said that part of the steering mechanism of the car dropped to the pavement, causing the vehicle to swerve to the right where it hit an embankment and rolled over, then hit a tree and rolled over again.

The car, a 1938 Chevrolet, was totally demolished except for the tires, police said.

Gen. Eisenhower May Use Helicopter To Visit Valley Forge On July Fourth

Valley Forge, June 26—(P)—General Dwight D. Eisenhower may use a helicopter to avoid the traffic when he visits the second national jamboree of the Boy Scouts of America July 4.

Announcement that Eisenhower will address the Scout gathering was made yesterday at Jamboree headquarters by Amory Houghton, president of the Boy Scouts of America, and Dr. Arthur A. Schuck, chief Scout executive.

Forty-seven thousand Scouts from every one of the 48 states and 20 other countries will be on hand for the jamboree, opening June 30 and ending July 5.

Eisenhower will come to this historic park—where George Washington's Continental Army spent the winter of 1777—from New York, where he is president of Columbia University.

The helicopter suggestion was made because of the possibility the one road leading to the camp site may be jammed with visitors' cars and commercial trucks.

General Eisenhower will be the second distinguished visitor during the jubilee encampment.

On Friday evening (June 30), President Truman will make a motor tour of the camp, chatting informally with the Scouts, then address the jamboree from the platform on a huge open-air arena on the grand parade.

Today Valley Forge Park will be turned over to the Boy Scouts officially at a brief ceremony at Washington's headquarters.

Long May It Wave--Correctly

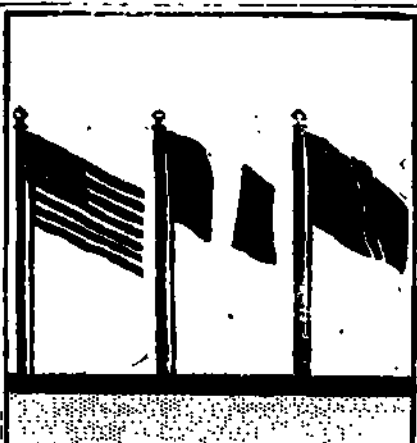

On Independence Day, July 4, millions of flags will be flown, displayed and carried in ceremonies and parades throughout the United States. Some of them, because of lack of information, will not be handled according to the rules of flag etiquette. Sketched here are some simple rules governing use of the United States flag. You may wish to clip and save these tips to be sure you're right when you're using The Star-Spangled Banner.

When displayed this way on wall, U. S. flag is on its own right, with its staff in front of the staff of the other flag.

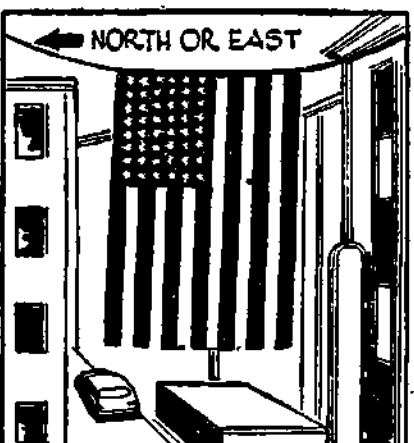

When displayed from a window horizontally or at an angle, the union of the flag goes to peak of the staff (unless at half-staff).

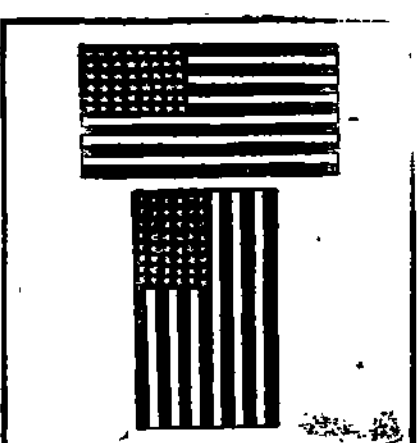

With flags of other nations, on separate staffs, all flags are of near equal size and at same height; U. S. flag on the right.

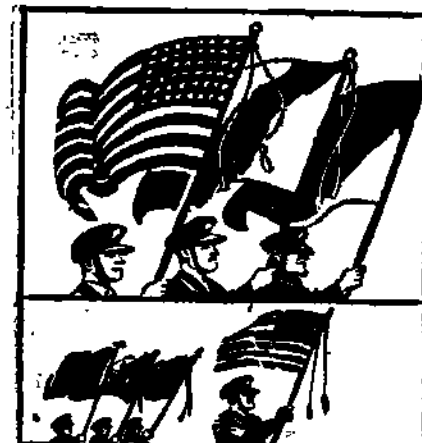

On speaker's platform, flag is displayed flat thus; or, if on a staff, it holds place of honor at the speaker's right.

Hang flag over the middle of a street vertically, the union facing north on east-west street and east on a north-south street.

When not on a staff, flag should be displayed flat, indoors or out. Union always goes uppermost and on its own right.

U. S. flag goes on the right when carried with another in parade. With a line of flags, U. S. flag goes front and center.

On church platform, U. S. flag goes on clergyman's right. If displayed in the body of the church, staff is on congregation's right.

DON'T DRAPE FLAGS OVER CARS OR FLOATS. ALWAYS TREAT FLAG WITH RESPECT. Never permit disrespect to be shown to the flag of the United States of America.

Swimming Pool At YMCA Undergoing Annual Renovating

The indoor lake at the local YMCA was drained this morning and will be closed all week for painting and repairs. The YM takes advantage of their Boys Camp week while 85 of their boys are at Camp Sherwin on Lake Erie to do an annual repair job on the swimming pool.

One of the prime concerns of the YM officials is that the swimming pool and its water purification system is kept in perfect shape and so this week the filtering system will be gone over as well as some painting to the walls in the pool room and repairs to the windows in that room.

The showers and gymnasium will be open to young men and seniors as usual.

The swimming pool will reopen next Monday and then swimming instruction classes for members, both boys and girls, will be resumed, and the regular swimming classes for all groups conducted.

CELEBRATION BRIEFS

It's difficult to explain in print the magnitude of the drum corps competition to be held on War Memorial Field the afternoon of July 4th. The array of talent which has been lined up by the committee is the finest ever seen in this area. As examples of the quality of these visiting organizations, the Lockhaven "Black Knights" are the V. F. W. Pennsylvania state champions and they won the V. F. W. national championship at Philadelphia last year. The Niagara Falls corps won the Amvets national championship at Chicago last year. Massillon is the Ohio state champion and was 8th at last year's American Legion convention. Dunkirk won the competition here last year. In addition these, there are Homewood, Salamander, Ridgway and Erie, who are always worthy competitors.

The appearance of these crack outfits will be preceded by the famous Canadian Legion Pipe Band of Toronto as well as some fancy drill team maneuvers. It's going to be a real show and everything points to a capacity crowd at Memorial Field, 4th of July afternoon. As Ben Kinnear so aptly put it as last Thursday's meeting, "You wanted a bigger and better celebration and you've got it."

Steve Massa has very kindly offered to decorate the entrance to Memorial Field for the occasion. Steve wanted to do something toward the celebration and thought that would be a worthwhile project. It's a very fine gesture and the committee sincerely thanks him.

The judging of the floats appearing in the parade will be in charge of Mrs. William E. Rice who will appoint four assistants to aid her. The float judges will not only view the floats as they move in the parade but will also inspect them thoroughly before the parade begins. The winning floats will be on exhibition at Memorial Field during the afternoon.

Melvin E. Keller has been appointed by the committee as chief judge of the drum corps competition. He is one of the judges of general effect during the contest and as chief judge he will tally up the scores of the other judges when the contest is finished.

There will be some seats on the Beaty School lawn for the vesper service on July 2nd and the Variety Show on July 3rd, but these will be limited. Anyone who wants to be assured of a seat should either make arrangements to take their own chair or else plan to sit on the lovely lawn.

The platform which is annually used at the Memorial Day cemetery service has been offered to the committee by the Veterans of Foreign Wars for the vesper service and the variety show.

The borough manager, L. N. McConnell, has made arrangements with the park department to erect the bleachers on Memorial Field. These gentlemen are donating their time to this job as is Claude Feiro, chief custodian of the Warren schools, who will supervise the bleachers' erection. This is a fine gesture on the part of these gentlemen.

YOUNGSVILLE

Mrs. Evelyn Carr attended a picnic meeting held at Chautauqua, N. Y., by officers of the Jamestown District WSCS and presidents of the local units of the district. Mrs. Carr reported an interesting and helpful meeting, with talks by district officers.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Swan and son, Phillip, of Indianapolis, Ind., spent several days last week with Mrs. Swan's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Gibson. They were accompanied home by Miss Louise Gibson, who will stay for several weeks.

Mrs. Gerald Finlan, Allegany, N. Y., has been a guest of Mr. and Mrs. Ed Finlan.

Mrs. Nellie Anderson was hostess for a cooperative dinner-meeting of the Methodist Sunday school board. A very fine dinner was enjoyed and plans for Sunday school work were considered, including the annual church school picnic in July, the date to be announced later. Plans are to be formulated by the Young Adult Class who wish to make it an event of the entire church as well as the pupils of the church school. It will be an out of town picnic, probably on Chautauqua Lake.

J. E. Chitester and John W. Chitester and family attended the funeral service of George Rogers, of Punxsutawney, 82 years of age and a brother-in-law of Rev. E. W. Chitester and son-in-law of J. E. Chitester. Mr. Rogers had been ailing for some months. Dr. John Zeff, Jr., and wife arrived from the south last week because of the illness of John Zeff Sr., who died at the Hospital.

R. K. WETZEL YES MANAGER

"Fresh starts for sale!"

My job is to make loans to local people. I like to say YES and, do say YES to 4 out of 5 who come to me for a loan. Yet I can't help feeling that my most important job is getting people out of debt—selling fresh starts. Take the young couple who came to see me only last week. The husband was making good money. Yet they couldn't seem to make ends meet. They wanted a loan of $50 until payday. With their permission, I went over their income and expenses on a worksheet* my company has just published. In 10 minutes, we'd spotted the trouble. Their monthly installment payments were just too high. After meeting them, they didn't have enough money to handle their regular monthly expenses. I lent them the cash to pay these accounts in full. Now they're repaying Personal—in monthly amounts that fit their income. They are happy with their fresh start.

Now I don't claim a loan is always the answer to a money problem. When it is, I say "yes" promptly. You also get the benefit of my years of experience with family budgets. If you can use either money or this free counsel, don't hesitate to see me. Come in to the Personal Finance Co.—or phone, today.

*You can get this worksheet, "X-Ray Booklet" without cost or obligation. Simply come in, or send a postcard.

LESSON IN ERICKSON'S PLEA

When Frank Erickson, the 54-year-old New York gambler, pleaded guilty to bookmaking charges last week, he may or may not have thought the cards were stacked against him.

But whatever his motive, it's certain he's a hero in the gambling world today. By avoiding a trial, he's kept the public's embarrassing gaze off not only his own affairs but those of many other bookies in a lot of places.

Names, details of technique, clientele, and numerous other trade secrets would have been exposed. Now, thanks to Erickson's "martyrdom," most of this will lie untouched in the district attorney's files.

If anyone has any doubts what withering damage the spotlight does to the careers of men on the left-hand side of the law, he need only note Erickson's behavior in a New York courtroom. Throughout the entire proceedings, the mild-mannered, heavy-jowled gambler was ashen and frightened. He managed to utter just one word, and that with difficulty.

Frank Hogan, the New York district attorney, calls Erickson the "biggest and most notorious bookmaker in the United States." The claim might be hard to prove. But it's clear he's big. He admitted to a congressional committee that he made $100,000 in a recent year. His income from 1933 to 1945 is generally understood to have been $32,000,000.

Hogan is confident Erickson has now been forced from the gambling picture for all time. Again, that contention may be debatable. One thing, however, the case definitely does do:

It demonstrates that the top men of today's gambling and crime syndicates can be snared, for all their clever effort to "stay legal" and operate behind a facade of legitimate business. And they can be caught on charges that bear real relation to their questionable activities, rather than through reliance on such incidental violations as federal income tax evasion.

Action against Erickson must be just a starter. Some man or group of men will try to pick up the scepter he has dropped. The gambling business probably will go on pretty much as usual unless the authorities smash his whole set-up and his rivals as well. Without this sequel, Erickson's conviction will serve little purpose.

Putting Erickson behind bars for the first time in his life is a move, too, that should lend must heart to the U. S. senators now probing crime in the capital. Having seen this tangible proof that results are possible; the Senate crime investigating committee should redouble its efforts to unearth the full story of organized criminal operations in America. Once they begin blinking under the glare of news photographers' flash bulbs, the criminals will be on the way out.

COUNTRY ABOVE POLITICS

Gov. Frank Lausche, a maverick Ohio Democrat, indicates he might vote for Republican Sen. Robert Taft next fall if he thinks the country's interest dictates it.

Lausche plainly has in mind Taft's highly productive career in the Senate, where he has been a leader from the moment he took office. It would hardly be accurate to say Taft has never lapsed into political opportunism; but his record of service conscientiously rendered is nevertheless almost unmatched.

Opposing him Lausche sees Joseph Ferguson, "fearless state auditor," father of eight and mangler of the English language. The governor is finding it difficult right now to believe the amiable Mr. Ferguson could be of equal value to his country as a member of the Senate.

But even if Lausche votes for Taft, that doesn't mean the senator is in. In political parlance, Ferguson is a "sleeper." Powerful forces will back him, including labor's full weight. And the voters who go to the polls in November won't be measuring his scholarship.

The first event in Warren's Fourth of July celebration was staged Friday evening when the queen and her court were selected from over fifty entries, at ceremonies held in Second avenue, with a large crowd present despite flashing lightning, rumbling thunder and intermittent rains. All concerned seem to be well pleased with the manner in which the selections were made and those in charge are to be commended.

Many friends who knew James E. Hazeltine, of North Warren, down through the years, will miss him a lot. Outspoken and fearless, but trusting a man implicitly, he possessed those rugged qualities that grow scarcer with the years. He was proof, in action, that "A man's word is as good as his bond." His work in the County Boy Scout Council will stand as a monument to his untiring efforts in behalf of young people.

Here And There

This And That: Cowboys from Bradford, Olean, Franklinville, Batavia, Titusville, Jamestown and other towns in the section competed in the rodeo staged Sunday afternoon by the Kinzua Fire Department at Anderson's Farm. Mr. and Mrs. John H. Cochrane, of York, and St. Petersburg, Fla., here over the weekend to attend the Langdon-Glackin wedding, formerly resided in Warren and are well remembered by many older residents. Mr. Cochrane was employed at the Struthers-Wells Co. foundry 52 years ago, and also served in the old Company I, 16th Pennsylvania Volunteers in the Spanish-American war. Mrs. Cochrane will be remembered as the former M. Magdalena Gieseler, also of this city. They plan visits with relatives in Warren, Erie and Hastings, expecting to return to York about July first. Special licenses and tags needed for muskellunge fishing have arrived at the office of the city clerk at Jamestown, prefacing the start of the season July first, and continues until October 15.

Capital's 'Upper Crust' Loses Best Show Seats to Workers

BY DOUGLAS LARSEN
NEA Staff Correspondent

WASHINGTON—(NEA)—High Washington brass and the town's socialites are a little miffed over the seating arrangements which have been made for the main attraction of the celebration of the city's 150th birthday this summer.

The event in question is a big pageant called "Faith of Our Fathers" which will be presented in a giant new amphitheater being built in Rock Creek Park. It's generally considered a mark of social rank here to have the best seats for any important event such as this.

However, Edward Boykin, the noted historian from Charlottesville, Va., who is in charge of the production, has ruled that the best seats at the gala premier will go to the carpenters and laborers who worked on construction of the amphitheater, and for free. It's a deserved reward, he says, for their hard work on the project.

Popular Rep. Mike Monroney (D., Oklahoma) who was named the outstanding congressman on the hill is reported to be making good headway in his fight to win the Democratic senatorial nomination next month. His opponent, the elder Sen. Elmer Thomas who has sat in the Senate for 24 years, is out campaigning harder than he ever has before. But he's using the same tack that lost Senator Pepper the nomination in Florida. It's the claim that he loaded the state with Federal projects and benefits. The only difference is that Pepper claimed he had been responsible for delivering $1,500,000,000 worth of pork. Thomas is only claiming the delivery of $1,000,000,000 worth.

But Thomas is also trying to make clear to the Oklahoma voters that his seniority on Senate committees is the best vantage point for getting additional federal dollars and benefits. Actually, in spite of his youth, Monroney's great popularity among all the congressmen and government officials probably gives him more influence in the Capitol than Thomas wields. But he's not making an issue of this.

SOME Pentagon experts predict at least a backstage feud between the Army and Air Force over the recent announcement that ground forces would have atomic weapons for tactical use against the enemy. They point out that the recent Navy-Air Force fight was basically over which agency would handle delivery services for the A-bomb. When the use of tactical atomic weapons first began to be taught in the Army's schools, the Air Force experts registered their objections to such instructions. There's still plenty of doubt among the top military planners as to whether or not the A-bomb is a satisfactory tactical weapon.

After Gen. Joe Collins had been informed he was to be Chief of Staff of the Army he immediately wired his friend Gen. Floyd L. Parks who was stationed at Pearl Harbor that he wanted him to come back to the Pentagon in the same job he had just left, as Chief of Information. Parks informed the Pentagon that he was returning reluctantly, but that they'd have to wait a few days because he planned to stop off in San Antonio, Tex., and win the Army's senior golf championship.

Gordon Gray, then secretary of the Army and golf crony of Parks', got a big laugh out of this boasting, but the laugh was on Gray because Parks actually won the championship. That's why, when Gray left the Army, he donated a huge silver loving cup as the perpetual award for the senior golf champ and presented it to Parks first.

zer, veteran desk lieutenant at police headquarters, certainly is making plans for that three-week vacation he already has started to enjoy. Thursday he stopped by City Clerk C. Harry Peterson's office and picked up one of those special muskellunge licenses. And for one who has asked plenty of questions in his day, for once Charlie was giving with the answers. The special permits require a description almost as complete as you find in police work. . . . If you are down Pleasant township way tomorrow afternoon or evening stop at Grange Hall and patronize the ice cream social the Girl Scouts are planning starting at four o'clock. Since the proceeds will be used for summer camping, the girls will appreciate all the support they receive. . . . The birthday list, printed for tomorrow, is particularly interesting. You'll note among them, Merle Graham, Ralph Sires, Ray Blimber, George Seavy and our own Gene Connors, chief mechanic in the composing room. Congratulations and best wishes to a bunch of swell guys. . . . Todd Siggins, who has been a fixture as George Calderwood's right-hand man at the Kay Richards & Co., brokerage office in the Warren Bank & Trust Co. building, is severing his connection with the firm the first of July and after a month's vacation at the Lake, will leave with his family for Daytona Beach, Fla., where they will make their future home. The "family" incidentally, consists of Mrs. Siggins and three children, Suzanne, Jackie and Jay. Todd will be succeeded at the brokers' office by Leonard "Buck" Whiteshot, who has had considerable experience in that line of business. . . . Glad to acknowledge receipt of a copy of the "Shrine edition" of the Los Angeles Examiner, containing four pages of parade pictures, sent to us by our "special correspondent" with the delegation from the Warren County Shrine Club. Still later we received a postcard from Yellowstone National Park showing a picture of The Ahwahnee, famous Yosemite hotel, "where the crowd was sheltered for two days, en route to Los Angeles."

Copyright, 1950, by Acme Newspictures

END OF A LONG RIDE—Police constable James Smith talks with weary little David Delgado, four, in Bovington, Hartfordshire, England. The lad completed a 9000-mile trip via Miami, Havana, Bermuda and Gander after the plane he traveled on was held up due to regulations of an Anglo-U. S. air agreement which prevented the plane's scheduled landing at London.

WELCOME FOR THE U. S.—Eight selected King's Scouts gave out with an exuberant farewell to a bagpipe accompaniment before sailing from Southampton, England. They were en route to the U. S. to represent Britain at the 40th anniversary of the founding of the Boy Scout movement in America. The camp is being staged at historic Valley Forge, Pa., and 50,000 American Scouts are attending.

THAT'S A LOT OF DOG—Zarza, an 18-month-old Italian sheepdog, is a happy resident of the Pet's Corner of the London, England, Zoo. A very good friend of the big white animal that stands six feet high on her hind legs is little Jennifer Savage who often comes to Zarza's home for a daytime visit.

EX-GI'S WILL REMEMBER—The Army is giving its remaining stocks of World War II combat boots a new shine at Ft. Meyer, Va. Pvt. Donald P. Ostergrew, left, contrasts the old boot with the plastic coated one worn by Pvt. Robert C. Stuart, which is also more water resistant. (Dept. of Defense Photo from Acme.)

TO LEAD ISRAEL ORCHESTRA IN U. S.—After a four-month tour of Europe, Dr. and Mrs. Serge Koussevitsky flew back to the U. S., landing at a New York airport. Dr. Koussevitsky announced that he and Leonard Bernstein will conduct the Israel Philharmonic Orchestra in most of the concerts of its American tour next winter under the sponsorship of the American Fund for Israel Institutions.

GOOD HUMOR GIRL—Starlet Lola Albright, in Hollywood, has been awarded a novel title by the Gagwriters Institute. They've nominated her the girl who can put any old grouch into a better humor, and she's got a silver cup to prove it.

SOMETHING TO ATTRACT THE EYE—A golfer may lose a ball, but he'll never lose sight of a caddy dressed like this one in Paris, France. To add a bit of color to golf courses, a Parisian designer dressed the caddy in brown plus fours, checked jacket, scarlet fez and umbrella, with a golf bag of alligator skin.

THIS LITTLE PIGGY GOT TO MARKET—Rescuers are shown helping a hog out of the wreckage of an overturned livestock truck near Elkhart, Ind. The hog was one of 107 animals being carried to market in Chicago in a semi-trailer which overturned while negotiating a curve in the road. The driver was not hurt, but 35 of the animals—one hog and 34 calves—died in the wreckage.

WALKS AFTER SEVEN YEARS—Marilyn Kay Howard, 13, gets a lesson from Nurse Patricia Matayoshi at the University of Illinois Hospital in Chicago in how to use walking aids. Metal rods were used to reinforce the bones in Marilyn's legs in a new type of surgery, and these are the first steps she's taken in seven years.

FOUR YEARS LATER—Italian infantrymen march past the reviewing stand on Rome's Via Del Impero during the fourth anniversary of Italy's becoming a republic. More than 15,000 men of the country's armed forces and police participated in the parade which celebrated the event.

Carmen Hendrickson Designs Grecian Model of Satin for Wedding On Friday

MR. AND MRS. RICHARD C. HULING

Carmen Lucille Hendrickson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Hendrickson, Youngville, was wedded to Richard C. Huling, son of Mr. and Mrs. N. B. Huling, Irvine, at 8:30 p. m., June 23, in Youngville Free Methodist church. The Rev. P. C. Millard, of Titusville, was assisted by Rev. John Bargar, Youngville pastor.

Center aisle pews were decorated with laurel bouquets and white satin streamers and each window ledge held a small bank of mock orange blossoms and group of lighted candles. Candelabra flanked the pulpit, which was banked with potted rabbit-foot fern, laurel and peonies.

The recital preceding the ceremony was given by Hugh Lucas, radio singer of Rochester, N. Y., using "Through the Years" and "Because". The Bridal Chorus from "Lohengrin" was sung for the procession, "The Lord's Prayer" followed the blessing prayer, and "Yours Is My Heart Alone," as a recessional.

The bride was attired in a self-designed gown of candlelight satin, fashioned with yoke of imported illusion bound by Grecian braid, buds, white carnations, bachelor buttons and yellow daisies, surrounded by leaves formed of satin and ribbons contrasting with their frocks. They also had miniatures of the same flowers in their hair.

The bridegroom's only brother, Merrill Huling, of Erie, was best man and ushers were Jack Daily and Pete Bargar, Youngville.

The mother of the bride wore a navy sheer, white accessories and a pink rosebud corsage, while Mrs. Huling was attired in dusty rose crepe, with white accessories and corsage of white rosebuds and blue bachelor buttons.

Following the ceremony, the bridal party stopped briefly at the home of the bride's grandmother, Mrs. Tilda Hendrickson, who was unable to attend the wedding.

The reception for 160 guests followed immediately at the National Forge clubhouse, where tables were decorated with candelabra and mock orange blossoms. The square, four-tiered cake was cut and served by the bridegroom's sister, Mrs. Laurence O. Nichols, Corry; Mrs. Clarence Hendrickson, Warren, and Mrs. Rex Simpson, Youngville, poured; aides were Mrs. H. Stanley Deshner, Mrs. Kenneth Hannold, Helen Horner and Mrs. Kenneth Dinny.

Out of town guests were from Rochester, Jamestown, Naples, North Chili, N. Y.; Atlanta, Ga.; Tionesta, Titusville, Union City, Corry, Erie, Foxburg, Ridgway, Pleasantville, New Castle, DuBois, Warren, Russell, Pittsfield, Endeavor, Clarendon and Irvine.

The bride's traveling outfit was an aqua gabardine suit, white and luggage tan accessories. After a short wedding trip, the couple will return July 4 to be at home at the L. T. Johnson apartment, Irvine Star Route.

The bride is a graduate of Youngville High School, Roberts Junior College, North Chili, N. Y., and Rochester General Hospital School of Nursing, and is presently employed at Warren General Hospital.

Mr. Huling attended Youngville High, is a veteran of World War II, and is a Pennsylvania Railroad employee.

Pre-nuptial showers were given in Rochester by Mrs. Wermuth and Miss Hansen; in Corry, by Mrs. Nichols; in Youngville, Mrs. Ernest Hendrickson and Mrs. Ralph Horner; and by Mrs. Elizabeth McMeans and Betty Horner in Warren. Mr. and Mrs. N. B. Huling entertained the bridal party at a rehearsal dinner Thursday evening.

MR. AND MRS. RICHARD A. GILSON

A candlelight service performed at 5 p. m. June 23 in First Presbyterian church united in marriage Margaret Lois, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Floyd W. Bathurst, North Warren, and Richard A. son of Mr. and Mrs. P. N. Gilson, 34 Brook street.

Dr. Robert S. Steen read the service against a beautiful setting of palms, ferns and summer flowers. Carroll Fowler was at the organ for a half-hour recital of traditional airs while guests assembled and played accompaniments for Constance Dey, North Warren, who sang "Because," "How Do I Love Thee" and "The Lord's Prayer."

The bride wore a gown of white marquisette with soft bertha collar of Chantilly lace and long sleeves pointed over the hands. The basque waist was close fitting and an old fashioned apron front edged with the same lace finished the wide skirt, which flowed into a long train. A poke bonnet held the sheer tulle veiling which had been worn by Mrs. Bathurst at her wedding. White roses were used in her bouquet and her only jewelry was the bridegroom's gift of rhinestone necklace and matching ear rings.

Escorted and given in marriage by her father, she was attended by her sister, Elizabeth, as maid of honor; and four bridesmaids: Joyce Gilson, sister of the bridegroom; Lella Mae Paden, North Warren; Mrs. Patricia Gustafson, Jamestown, N. Y.; and Mrs. Romaline Steves, Erie. The maid of honor's gown was of light blue marquisette to match the bride's, with wide pleated ruffle accenting the bertha and apron-front of the skirt. She had matching mits, a pink flowered tiara and carried a pink colonial bouquet. Bridesmaids were in yellow and green frosted organdy, with wide sashes and bustle-backs. The two in yellow had blue tiaras and bouquets, with yellow floral accents for those in green.

Completing the bridal party were Ivan Zimmerman, Pittsburgh, as best man; and the following ushers: Glenn Nelson, Homer Haines and John F. Nordine, Warren; Norman Simpson, Erie.

Mrs. Bathurst chose navy blue and white for her ensemble and Mrs. Gilson wore powder blue with pale pink accessories, each with a pink corsage.

The reception for 70 guests followed immediately at the YWCA, where flowers were beautifully arranged with candles and the bride's cake. The candelabra used was a gift to the First Baptist church from the Gilson family in memory of a sister.

Out of town guests were: Mrs. Catherine Midlam, Mrs. Harold Bratt, Joyce Bratt, Mrs. Milton Gustafson, Lucile Baker, Pauline Joslyn, Gladys Anderson, Mildred Withington, Audrey Ahlgren, Margaret Thelander, Virginia Madson, Evelyn Bedient, Douglas Johnson, Delores Moberg, Wallace Turnquist, Mrs. James Bova, Mrs. Ward Chapman, Mrs. Percy Allen, Mrs. Helen Jones, Jean Lundberg, Margaret Studeman, and Joe Darrow, Jamestown, N. Y.

For a honeymoon at Chautauqua and the Poconos, the bride chose a brown tweed suit and white accessories. Returning July 8, the couple will be at home to friends at 201 Pioneer street.

Graduate of Warren High School, Edinboro State Teachers College, and the WCA Hospital School of Nursing in Jamestown, the bride has been employed as clinical supervisor at the latter institution for the past two years. Hobo Party Great Success Saturday

Many hobos gathered at the "Party of the Month Club" affair held Saturday evening at the Marconi Outing Club.

The usual floor show, "I Want to Lead a Band," was greatly enjoyed by the large group and it was surprising and most amusing to see the selected list of hobos leading Emmie Emerson's band in a style never to be forgotten.

Gordon Patchen and Joyce Warner tied for first prize in their arrangements of "Tiger Rag" and "Embraceable You."

A wiener roast followed, with plenty of eats for everyone.

Announcement was made that the next party, which will be July 29, will feature a big name band. Everyone will be looking forward to this event and to announcement of the band in the near future.

"Pope Joan" was a favorite card game in the 18th century.

Average Husband Is Washout By All Soap Opera Standards

RADIO soap operas, women's magazine fiction, and lending library love stories give women such a false picture of how a man behaves toward the woman he loves it's a wonder there aren't more dissatisfied wives than there are.

This fictitious husband who is held up as the answer to every woman's dreams seems to spend his life thinking in terms of his wife's happiness. He is sensitive to her moods, sympathetic when she is trying bravely to convince him that she doesn't need sympathy and that everything is really just dandy, and he is forever inventing little surprises calculated to make his wife say, "Roger, you darling."

The people who write the soap operas and the short stories and romantic novels beamed directly at women must know how women wish their men would treat them. For women lap up the stories and sigh over the heroes who are so unlike their own husbands.

JUST DOESN'T HAPPEN IN REAL LIFE

BUT it's kind of a shame to make women believe that such husbands are to be had in this world.

When Mamie's own Joe in real life answers her need for a sympathetic ear by tuning in the ball game a little louder, or is too busy earning a living for her to be spending his days thinking up little ways to surprise and please her, Mamie ought to know he's not an insensitive clod—he's just a typical husband.

But if she takes her soap operas and magazine stories seriously she is bound to wonder how she ever fell in love with such an unromantic, unfeeling, selfish lout.

No man knows what unreasonable competition he is up against unless he is acquainted with the husbands his wife meets through the radio, the lending library, and her women's magazines.

Ruth Joanne Whitehill Becomes Bride Of Nevin Smith In Church Ceremony

A basket of white glads accented against ferns and palms provided the simple setting at 3 p. m. June 24 in the First Presbyterian church, for the marriage of Ruth Joanne, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph W. Whitehill, Warren, and Nevin Nelson Smith, Edinboro, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. Guy Smith, Conneautville, R. D. 3.

Dr. Robert S. Steen performed the ceremony and Carroll Fowler, organist, played a half-hour recital while guests gathered. He was accompanist also, for Mrs. Everett Borg, whose numbers were "The Voice That Breathes O'er Eden" and "Wedding Prayer."

The bride's gown of nylon tulle over Cohama satin was modeled with crushed tulle bodice trimmed with tiny satin buttons, transparent yoke and sleeves, the full skirt extending into a tulle train. Her veil of imported illusion net was held in place by a satin veiling circlet trimmed with seed pearls, her pearl necklace was the bridegroom's gift, and she carried a semi-colonial cascade of white roses.

She was given in marriage by her mother, Mrs. Chester Minnis, wearing aqua organdy with frosted flowers and matching mits. The bridesmaids, Mrs. John L. McLucas, State College, and Mrs. Robert S. Johnson, Warren, wore similar frocks of pink organdy. All had bands of fresh flowers in their hair and carried colonial bouquets of Esther Reed daisies. The little flower girl, Carol Smith, Edinboro, niece of the bridegroom, wore a long white frock embroidered with pink flowers and carried summer flowers in her basket.

Serving Mr. Smith as best man was the bride's brother, Robert R. Whitehill, with Selden M. Smith, of Edinboro, brother of the bridegroom, and Paul Rouse, Erie, as ushers.

The bride's mother wore a dusty rose hat and frock, with white accessories and corsage of yellow roses, while Mrs. Smith had an all-navy ensemble and pink rose corsage.

Flowers and tapers centered the all-white table for the reception for 150 guests which followed at the YWCA, with the four-tiered wedding cake served from a side table. Aides were Mrs. Robert Whitehill, Carolyn Smith, Martha Bartoo, Mrs. Ronald Stigers, Mrs. Kenneth Porter and Mrs. Theodore Richard.

Guests included relatives and friends from Cleveland, New York, Pittsburgh, Akron, Erie, Jamestown, Meadville, Bradford, Conneautville, Edinboro, Tionesta, Sheffield and Saegertown.

Leaving for a Canadian wedding trip, the bride wore a street dress of blue and white dotted silk, with navy and white accessories, and a corsage of rubrum lilies.

The couple will be at home after July 4 at 27 Ontario street, Edinboro. Mrs. Smith, graduated from Warren High and Edinboro State Teachers College, has been employed as a teacher in Warren public schools. Mr. Smith was graduated from Conneautville Vocational school, after which he served five years with the Army in the Pacific Theatre. He is employed by the state board of vocational education as a rehabilitation counselor in the Erie District, Bureau of Rehabilitation.

Search Under Way In Lake Michigan For Lost Airliner

(From Page One)
Investigators examined a theory that the plane, flying non-stop from New York to Minneapolis, might have been hit by lightning.

Reports of residents of the vicinity and the discovery of the remnants of human bodies gave some support to this explanation, but it was doubtful whether it could ever be proved.

A Coast Guard patrol boat from South Haven, Mich., station came upon the gruesome evidence last night after a long search of the lake by fleets of planes and boats.

The plane carried 85 passengers and a crew of three.

The seedless apple had its origin from a freak tree in Virginia.

Swift Compromise Is Anticipated For Draft Legislation

Washington, June 26—(AP)—A swift compromise was expected today on a draft bill giving President Truman power to order men into uniform when congress is out of town.

Following senate passage of a draft bill last week, some lawmakers had predicted that senate house conferees also would agree to a two-year extension of the present selective service law.

However, the Communist invasion of South Korea prompted speculation that the conferees might now aim at getting the strongest draft machinery possible, in their efforts to write a single bill from the differing measures passed by the two chambers.

Approval of a two-year extension would involve one major concession from each end of the capitol. The senate approved a three-year extension while the house voted to keep "trigger control" of any actual induction of youths 19 through 25 in the hands of congress.

At present, Selective Service is being kept alive by a stopgap 15-day extension rushed through congress and signed by President Truman last Friday, a few hours before the 1948 act expired.

With this temporary extension out of the way the senate completed action on its long-term bill.

Pittsburgh Is Hard Hit By Rainstorms

Pittsburgh, June 26—(AP)—Cleaning up debris is the order of the day in Pittsburgh today following two week-end rainstorms of near cloudburst proportions.

Ten persons were injured when two trolleys were hit by lightning Saturday. Three were hospitalized.

Nearly three inches of rainfall were recorded during the weekend. Property damage will total thousands of dollars. Many gardens were washed away, several minor landslides were reported, utility poles were felled by falling trees and branches and scores of homes in low-lying sections were flooded.

Hardest hit in both storms were the west and section and areas of Sewall Run boulevard and Kansas road.

Traffic through the Liberty Tubes was halted for three hours Saturday night and again for five hours yesterday. Torrent of muddy water from Saw Mill Run and West Liberty avenue flooded the tunnel's south approaches.

Two Years In Pen For Gambler Chief

New York, June 26—(AP)—Frank Erickson, kingpin of a nationwide bookmaking business, today was sentenced to two years in prison and a $30,000 fine.

The chubby, 54-year-old gambling mogul, who had pled his multi-million-dollar betting trade for a quarter century without spending a day in jail, was sentenced in special sessions court.

He could have received up to 60 years in prison.

Officials Confer In Washington Over Situation

prisons committee, to talk on foreign recovery and American aid programs. It seemed certain that they would be asked for information on the Korean situation.

Meanwhile the senate was due to take up (late afternoon) a pending $1,222,500,000 foreign military assistance bill for the next 12 months and thereby open a forum for debate on the latest developments.

On the administration side, indications were that for the moment the president and his advisers, having set two lines of action in motion, wanted to judge results before embarking on further ventures.

Yesterday, in quick succession, the American government:

1. Directed General Douglas MacArthur to rush munitions, particularly small arms ammunition, to the south Korean army from his stores of war material in Japan.

2. Won United Nations Security Council approval for a resolution ordering a stop to the fighting and the withdrawal of the Communist forces back to their own territory north of the 38th parallel.

The hurry-up order for munitions was given early Sunday after Myun Chang presented assistant Secretary of State Dean Rusk with an urgent request from his government for assistance.

IT'S DEATH, MY DARLING!

By Amelia Reynolds Long

Chapter 5
I REMAINED where I was, staring at the glowing cigar butt, which seemed to stare back at me like a red eye. What was it Uncle Raoul had been about to say when Cousin Jeff had interrupted him? The very violence of that interruption made me almost positive that, whatever it was, he was already aware of it; but unlike Uncle Raoul, he was refusing to admit it, even to himself.

One sentence of Uncle Raoul's kept repeating itself in my mind, like a fragment of song from a phonograph record when the needle gets caught in a groove: "There's something wrong here; I've felt it ever since I came."

What was it that Cousin Jeff had sensed, but was refusing to acknowledge? Was it some lingering impression left on the atmosphere of the place by events already transpired, or was it a presence of things yet to come?

Just then Bobby came out and reined me, and a moment later Amédée and Henri drove around with the car; so I let my contemplations of calamity, if any, go until a more suitable time.

WE HAD intended to be gone an hour or so at most; but something must have happened to the time—it always does when you least want it to—and so when we finally did get back, it was nearly half past twelve. But that wasn't the worst. Not only was the house in complete darkness, but the front door had been locked!

Amédée swore in French when he discovered the locked door. "This is some of Aunt Minerva's doing!" he exclaimed, revering to English. "She deliberately locked the door so we'd have to come back and find out what time we came back. But there's more than one way to get in. We'll try the woodbox."

I think I've already mentioned the woodbox beside the fireplace in the back parlor. It was a huge structure, about four feet square and a little more than that in height, with a hinged drop lid. But, as I was now to learn, it also had a second opening through the wall at its back, for the purpose of filling it from outside the house. The lid to this swung outward, and could be—but was not—fastened with a hasp and padlock. It was through this that Bobby and I, with much subdued laughter, and assisted by Amédée and Henri, managed to get in.

We stopped long enough in the inky blackness of the room to remove our slippers; then, with the aid of a flashlight which Henri had given to this swung outward, and could be—but was not—fastened with a hasp and padlock. It was through this that Bobby and I, with much subdued laughter, and assisted by Amédée and Henri, managed to get in.

Just as I was dropping off to sleep, a strange sound filtered through my dulled consciousness. It was a high-pitched, eerie wail that elongated itself mournfully through the stillness of the night. It could have been one of the dogs about the place baying at the moon; but as sleep overcame me, I carried with me the strange impression that it was the lonely howl of a wolf.

Bobby and I continued on to our own room. Neither of us commented upon what we had overheard. We undressed silently and crept into bed.

F. B. I. Transcript Is Handed Probers

Washington, June 26—(AP)—The Justice Department turned over to senate investigators today the FBI's transcript of a conversation in 1945 between diplomat John S. Service and Ambassador Philip Jaffe.

Service was questioned about it behind closed doors.

Edward P. Morgan, counsel for a senate foreign relations subcommittee, said the transcript was delivered by Assistant Attorney General James M. McInerney, chief of the Justice Department's criminal division.

Senator Tydings (D-Md.), the committee chairman, told newsmen he did not know whether the transcript would be made public after the meeting.

C. E. Rhett, Service's attorney, said Service had no objection to the full transcript being made public, but that the decision was up to the committee.

Senator McCarthy (R-Wis) has declared the 1945 Service-Jaffe conversation, overheard by the F. B. I. through a hidden microphone, indicated that Service passed military secrets to Jaffe.

Service has said he never gave Jaffe any military information. He said he had no such information to impart.

BRADFORD SUIT IS OF INTEREST HERE

Bradford, June 26—(AP)—George Bovard, Jr., of Bradford, was free on $10,000 bond on a charge of embezzling $19,000 from the Bradford oil firm of Carter and Company, in which he is a partner.

The charges were filed by Bovard's partner, Mrs. Beth Putnam of Hollywood, Calif., wife of Dr. Tracy Putnam, noted brain surgeon.

Alderman Carroll Clayton set a preliminary hearing for June 30.

Jack J. McDowell, attorney for Bovard, declared.

"It is the position of the defense that these actions are instituted on account of a difference of opinion as to methods of accounting. The items referred to in the information are also covered in civil action brought by Mrs. Putnam."

Attorneys for Mrs. Putnam declined to comment immediately.

Mrs. Putnam is the former wife of John Carter, of Warren, and before her second marriage lived in Bradford.

FIREMEN CALLED

Warren firemen were called to the H. R. Williams home, 203 Division street, at 12:30 o'clock this afternoon when smoke filled the cellar of the home. Firemen found a catalogue in the furnace apparently had taken fire from a pilot light. There was no damage.

Forge Nine Splits With Westfielders

National Forge split even in two independent baseball clashes with Westfield, N. Y., over the weekend.

The NFO copped a 2-1 decision in an air-tight ball game at the State Hospital field Saturday afternoon, but wound up on the short end of a 16-6 count in a return game at Westfield on Saturday.

Veiling was the winning pitcher or Saturday's tilt, with Rosequist behind the plate. Battery for Westfield was Natale and Young. Veiling had six strikeouts while Natale had seven.

The Forge scored in the first inning on singles by Berdine and Inage, and a fly by Rosequist. Westfield tallied in the second when Bennett singled, went to second on a sacrifice bunt, advanced a third on a ground out and was waved home when the umpire called a balk on Veiling. Winning un for the NFO came in the seventh when Reese walked, went to second on a wild pitch, and then carried across the plate on a single by Veiling.

The linescore:

Westfield . . . 010 000 000—1 5 1
F. O. . . . 100 000 10x—3 6 2

At Westfield, errors and misplays proved costly to the Forge and they were never in the game after the second inning.

Home runs were credited to Rosequist for the N. F. O., and Jawah for Westfield.

Batteries were Hines, Gray in th and Rosequist for the Forge, and Haskell and Young for Westfield.

The linescore:

F. O. . . . 200 000 004—6 9 4
Westfield 280 352 00x—15 17 1

The Forge record for the season now shows four wins in six starts. Next Saturday they will angle with Ludlow at the State Hospital field.

Chambers Is Atlas Carrying Scarred Pirates on His Back

BY NED BROWN
Batting for Harry Grayson,
AEA Sports Editor, who is on vacation

NEW YORK—(NFA)—When Pittsburgh talked about selling Cliff Chambers to Brooklyn, Bill Meyer threatened to resign.

Early Clyde McCullough, the Pirate backstop, broke down and almost wept at the prospect of losing the "best left-handed pitcher in baseball."

Chambers, a massive, towering bloke, with the aid of Johnny Hopp and Ralph Kiner, has been carrying the Pirates on his back all season. He's a regular Atlas in that respect.

The six-foot three-inch, 215-pound Bellingham, Wash., southpaw is one of the more controversial pitchers in baseball. His major league career has had as many ups and downs as a yo-yo.

Stretched out on the bed in his hotel room garbed in T-shirt and wrinkled slacks, Big Lefty was studying the National League pitching statistics.

"Six and six," he muttered, referring to his .500 pitching average. "With a couple of breaks it could as well be nine and three."

He went on to mention the too frequent instances the scarred Pirates had blown games.

There's no question but that the Pirates have the worst infield extant.

"A PITCHER'S gotta be a superman to break even on that team," sympathized a baseball scribe from the Smoky City.

"I'll be lucky if I can wind up the year pitching .300 ball," declared the Buc swiftly who racked up a slick 13-7 record last year.

"You can't win ball games with holes in your defense. Too many balls are slipping through our infield. When a ball takes three or four bounces, there should be some play on it."

Chambers believes his only salvation for a good campaign lies in the upcoming hot-weather months. He told better under a scorching sun; witness his masterful two-hitter at Cincinnati last year with the mercury at 102.

"In this day of the hopped-up ball, you gotta keep 'em low at all times," said the bold Buccaneer. "You can't afford to leave 'em high, or you'll hear that ol' rabbit scream as the ball sails by on its way to hellagone."

Cliff's best is his speed toms.

"But Bill has me throwing the slow stuff, too; makes the fast one more effective he says."

When Manager Meyer threatened to quit when he heard the front office was considering swapping Big Lefty and Outfielder Wally Whitely to the Dodgers for five players, it's evident Cliff Chambers rated pretty high in his book!

NEW YORK—(NFA)—A year ago there wasn't a peep out of George Clyde Kell.

When Kell won the American League batting championship by .0002 with .343, everybody said it was too bad to see a great hitter like Ted Williams beaten out of it.

Nothing was said about the Red Sox slugger tailing off, the Tigers' third baseman coming on like Middlesong in the Belmont.

This season Kell, traveling at a robust .380, obviously is out to demonstrate that his showing the way to the hitters was no accident, which baseball people knew it wasn't all along. The Arkansas school teacher was on his merry way in 1946-47, when he batted .322 and .330, literally got a bad break when a line drive off Joe DiMaggio's bat fractured his lower jaw in '46.

Perhaps the most unusual thing about the quiet Kell this trip is his telling the cockeyed world that he believes he can repeat as batting champion and take the trophy Tigers to the pennant with him.

Sealing the heights did something to the soft-spoken, grossly-underpublicized Kell, gave him a terrific lift.

AL SIMMONS, now coaching the Indians, made a suggestion to Kell that helped lift him from a .370 hitter with the Athletics, swat sphere savagely and on a line to all fields.

"I was a punch hitter," explains the sturdy-built, reddish-haired Arkansas State alumnus. "Simmons saw that I wasn't getting around on the ball."

"He suggested that I try a lighter bat, so I switched from a heavy .90-ounce to a 32-ounce, the smallest in the majors."

"With the A's, I stood far back in the batter's box, and because I wasn't giving the club all the help I believed I should, I switched to a position even with the plate and three or four inches from it."

"It was the combination of the new position and the light bat which got me out in front of the ball where I could pull it."

"I know all about the Rogers Hornsby and Stanley Musial theory of standing as far back in the batter's box as you can get, and hitting the ball at the last possible second after the pitch has expended itself."

"Musial plainly does that naturally better than I did. I get better results trying to hit the ball before it breaks fully."

Modest George Kell telling you what he intends to do to the pitchers—and how—typifies the new aggressiveness of the Tigers.

RIDES "LIKE A MILLION" DELIVERS FOR ONLY

POWER? Sure! Here's a whole bonnet-ful of Fireball straight-eight power.

Room? Plenty—in big, sofa-wide seats and generous room for elbows and shoulders.

Style? Well take a look—see anything on the road today that is so smart, so sleek, so quickly spotted?

But that's just a start in this beauty. Here you're going to meet the "ride of a lifetime"—smooth, level-going comfort in the quite matchless Buick manner.

Just see why this is so:

Most cars have coil springs in front. Buick has them all around.

Most cars now ride on low-pressure tires. Buick adds to them Safety-Ride rims to cut heel-over and sway.

Most cars drive through the rear springs, which means they have to be stiff. Buick drives through a firm torque-tube that takes up driving thrust and roughness.

And no other car—no, not a single one—has all these comfort extras plus husky frames plus Hi-Poised engine mountings plus middle-of-the-car seating plus the extra silkiness of Dynaflow Drive.*

Worth something? You bet it is. But it's

*Standard on ROADMASTER, optional at extra cost on SUPER and SPECIAL models.

Optional equipment, state and local taxes, if any, additional. Prices may vary slightly in adjoining communities due to shipping charges. All prices subject to change without notice.

riding luxury that doesn't show up in the price tags. Figures start at levels lower than on many sixes—yet every Buick has this matchless array of ride features.

Better come learn about them—by first-hand trial. Can you see your Buick dealer today?

PESSIMISM PAYS OFF FOR ALERT COLLEGEIAN

By OSWALD JACOBY

Written for NEA Service

"Your friend Pessimistic Pete has nothing on one of the players in the Intercollegiate Championship held in Chicago last April," writes Geoffrey Mott-Smith, well-known tournament director. "This pessimistic college student was Frank Nichols, of Clark University."

"West led the four of diamonds against the contract of six no-trump. South won in his own hand with the jack and looked around for a way to make sure of his contract.

"Nichols decided that there were twelve cold tricks if the entire heart suit came in. However, even if that were the case, there was no sound play for thirteen tricks. Since there was very little chance of making an extra trick, South decided to make absolutely sure of the twelve tricks that he needed for his contract by taking out insurance against a 5-1 or 6-0 split in hearts.

"At the second trick, therefore, Nichols led the deuce of clubs. 'Virtue was rewarded. The

EYE REMOVED
Wesley Demming, 20, Spartansburg RD 3, injured in a one-car accident about two weeks ago near the State Hospital, has had his left eye removed as a result of the accident. He was transferred from Warren General Hospital to Aspinwall Veterans Hospital after his condition bettered, and over the weekend, was removed to Titusville Hospital. His condition is still listed as only fair. Lloyd Thomas, Vern Smith, and Gary Hottel, with Demming at the time of the accident, were discharged from Warren General Hospital a few days after the crash. All are employees of Warren State Hospital. In addition to the loss of the eye, Demming suffered a broken nose and fractured jaw in two places. His car was demolished after striking three trees.

DETOURS REMAIN
The latest detour bulletins issued by the Department of Highways from the period June 23 to July 7, reflects no change locally. The detour through Starbrick remains slated for removal on September 1; and those from Chardlers Valley to Sugar Grove, and Clarendon to Sheffield, for removal August 15.

Switchboard Specialist

In Pennsylvania there are several thousand companies whose business requires telephone operators and switchboards of their own. Obviously, it's mighty important to keep these switchboards in good running order, and to add new lines when needed.

That's the job of men such as Ross Fry of Reading, Pa. Like other Bell Telephone people, these "switchboard specialists" are all trained to do their part in the huge job of providing Pennsylvania with round-the-clock Bell Telephone service. And like other telephone people, they can count on good wages and steady employment.

Any way you look at it, the jobs of more than 30,000 Bell Telephone men and women in Pennsylvania are an important factor in the prosperity of the state.
